9. FORCE MAJEURE EVENT

The Company shall not be held liable for any failure or delay in performing its obligations under these Terms of Use, including the provision of MassaBridge for the Buildnet, if such failure or delay is caused by a Force Majeure Event. A "Force Majeure Event" refers to any unforeseeable and exceptional event beyond the control of the Company that prevents or hinders the performance of its obligations. This includes, but is not limited to, war, terrorism, riots, embargoes, acts of civil or military authorities, decisions by regulatory authorities, fire, floods, accidents, strikes, epidemics, pandemics, network outages, cyberattacks, or any other similar event that is beyond the reasonable control of the Company.

In the event of a Force Majeure Event, the Company shall take all reasonable steps to mitigate the effects of the Force Majeure Event and resume performance of its obligations as soon as practicable.

During the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, The Company's obligations under these Terms of Use shall be suspended. The Company shall make reasonable efforts to mitigate the impact of the Force Majeure Event and to resume its obligations as soon as the event ceases to hinder its performance.

If a Force Majeure Event continues for an extended period and materially affects the provision of MassaBridge, the Company may choose to terminate these Terms by posting a message on the Site to inform the Users.

10. GOVERNING LAW; DISPUTE RESOLUTION; NO ACTION WAIVERS

10.1. Governing Law

All disputes or claims arising out of, relating to, or in connection with these Terms, their breach, or the use of the Massa Bridge shall be definitively settled by the competent courts of France. In the event of a dispute, the parties mutually agree that the competent jurisdiction shall be that of the Tribunal Judiciaire of Paris.

10.2. Dispute Resolution

Before resorting to the competent courts, the parties commit to undertaking a pre-dispute conciliation process aimed at resolving any potential disputes. The party asserting a dispute with the other party shall provide written notification to the other party, clearly stating the nature of the dispute (the "Conciliation Request").

Within thirty (30) days of receiving the Conciliation Request, the parties shall convene, either in person or remotely, and make genuine efforts to amicably settle the dispute. Each party pledges to actively and in good faith participate in the conciliation proceedings.

If the parties succeed in reaching an agreement through the conciliation process, the agreement will be formalized in writing and signed by both parties to signify their consent (the "Conciliation Agreement"). This Conciliation Agreement shall be binding on the parties and shall govern the resolution of the dispute.

Should the parties fail to reach an agreement within thirty (30) days from the commencement of the conciliation process, each party shall be entitled to pursue recourse in the competent courts as stipulated in the "Dispute Resolution" clause mentioned above.

All discussions, statements, and communications conducted during the conciliation process are to be treated as confidential and shall not be utilized or disclosed in any subsequent judicial proceedings, except when necessary to enforce the Conciliation Agreement or as required by applicable law.

10.3. No Class Action Waivers

Users agree to waive any right to bring or participate in any class, consolidated, or representative action regarding any dispute arising out of or relating to these Terms. The failure of the Company to enforce any right or exercise any remedy provided in these Terms shall not constitute a waiver of such right or remedy unless expressly stated otherwise.

Any waiver by the Company of any right or remedy under these T&S shall only be effective if it is in writing and signed by an authorized representative of The Company. Such waiver shall apply only to the specific provision and incident for which it is given and shall not create a precedent for future waivers.

All rights and remedies not expressly granted by these Terms are reserved to The Company. No provision of these T&S shall be interpreted as implicitly granting, by estoppel or otherwise, any additional rights or remedies to any party. In the event of a continuing or repeated breach of these T&S by a User, the Company reserves the right to exercise all rights and remedies provided herein, as well as any other rights or remedies available under the law, without prejudice to its ability to act with respect to subsequent similar violations or other breaches.

11. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

These Terms constitute the entire agreement between you and The Company regarding your use of the Site and Services, and supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements, communications and proposals, whether oral or written, between you and The Company regarding your use of the Site and Services.
